

Kids Corner!

The Weirdest Day Ever

My dad is cooking tea first instead of making my breakfast. When I get to the school everybody was getting ready to go home. When I get my lunch, my mum had made my breakfast. When I went to play outside the moon was up.

A Day About Me!

I woke up with a loud “Beep!” It was a foghorn. So I got dressed and I decided to wear my favourite outfit. I went downstairs and I heard my mum say, “Hi my little angel. What would you like for breakfast?” I said, “Would like a milkshake, two pancakes and two chocolate donuts. YUM.” I got to school and my teacher said, “What would you like to do today?” “Well, I would like to play with my friends all day, I would like to be the teacher for a day, I would like to get something for free from the canteen and I do not want to do work for the day.” “Ding Dong.” Now school had started. My teacher’s name is Miss Clarice Bean. Miss Clarice Bean called three names. They were Abbey, Kaitlyn and I. I went to the netball court and played, played and played. Then it was lunch time and we went to the canteen and I got twista pasta. Abbey got twista pasta and Kaitlyn did too. We decided that’s what we would do ART and after a while we decided that we would play ball. Then it was time to go inside but we stayed outside. We put on a play for the preps and we did some reading to the grade 1/2s and we danced and had fun. The last bell went and that was time to go home. So I said that, “Abbey and Kate could come over after school.” We all went swimming, shopping and we went to get ice creams. Then Abbey and Kate went home and I did too. Mum took me up to my bed and I fell asleep. I wonder what I will do tomorrow!

Just Another Day!!

I was woken by the sound of my alarm, my pet lion Fluff roaring. I stepped down onto my mat and sat down. It lifted off the ground and flew to the dining room. “HI Honey” my mum said. We have lots of yum food for your breakfast. We have lollies, yogurt, pancakes and an apple. “Yum!” I answered. Today I will take my helicopter to school I think. Off we go to school. When I got to the class the teacher said I could be teacher for a couple of hours. Then I played computer games for the rest of the day. After school I went to the Zone. I played lots of fun games like laser tag, skate Zone and the game area. After that I got really hot so I decided to go to the swimming pool. I jumped off the three metre. By that time I was starving. So I went to McDonalds for dinner. I had a medium McChicken meal with a frozen coke. It was scrum diddleyumches. When I got home my best friends came over. They stayed for a while but then they went home. I had a shower and then watched TV and fell asleep on the couch. My mum put me on the elevator and I went up, up and I was in my bedroom. Mum put me into my bed, then she left the room. I woke up to the sound of people calling my name. I hopped out of bed and I looked out the window. Far, far down was...my best friends Jordan and Kaitlyn. I ran to my carpet. It lifted off the ground and flew to where my friends were standing. Then I flew back with my friends and we had a giant pillow fight. I flew them back to their houses. Then I went home. I hopped into bed and I said to myself, “I wonder what I will do tomorrow?”
