FROM ROOM 12 – ‘Mr. Wolf is Innocent’

I strongly believe Mr Wolf is innocent here are some reasons why. Firstly Mr Wolf was making a cake for his granny and he had no sugar so he went to his Nabors house. Secondly he blew the house down because Mr Wolf had a cold and sneezed. Lastly he ate the pigs because it was free food for him to eat, obviously went to jail. In conclusion it was his granny’s birthday, he accidently blew down the houses and finally he was caught. By Josh W

There has been some talk around the world about the ‘Big Bad Wolf’, well you heard wrong and this is why. To start, what’s all this huff and puff stuff? On the day of the accusation of the small good wolfy, he had a terrible cold, hence the reason he sneezed their houses down. In addition, those little porkers were so rude you would go after them if they said “Your granny can go seat on a pin!” (third rude pig). Lastly it was his granny’s birthday and all he wanted from them a cup of sugar for his granny’s cake. And to conclude, this Wolf was framed and innocent from the start so wolf I suggest you start some sewing. By Darcy

Frustration, Sadness, Anger!!! This is what Alexander T. Wolf will feel like if you and the rest of the world named him as the big bad wolf when he didn’t do anything wrong. Hence, my thought on this argument, which is strongly stating that the big bag wolf isn’t really bad!!! Firstly, I strongly agree that the big bad wolf isn’t really bad because he had a cold and it was an accident. Therefore, he shouldn’t be blamed for blowing his house down and eating the pigs when all he wanted was a CUP OF SUGAR!!! Secondly, it is important to make a note that he’s a carnivore. Therefore, I strongly believe that he isn’t bad at all! It’s not his fault he has an urge to eat animals, guys we eat bacon and hamburgers, that’s meat. It’s just like us driving past McDonalds and sees a special and it’s so tempting that you have to get it! It’s just the same as him looking at a dead animal and wanting to eat it!!! Thirdly, I’m boiling inside, with urge to say that I strongly believe they should burn the silly book that says he is bad because it’s just a big fat lie. He doesn’t deserve to be blamed because the last pig was extremely rude and he said “And your old granny can sit on a pin” So I think the pigs got what they deserved, because the wolf was so polite and for god’s sake he sneezed!!! Finally, I believe in my heart that the wolf isn’t bad because he was framed. The reporters changed the whole story completely which I dislike a lot because all he wanted was a cup of sugar!!! In conclusion, I strongly think that the poor wolf is not a big bad wolf. For example; he had a cold, it was an accident, he’s a carnivore, the pigs were rude, they picked on his granny and he was framed! I hope you take in what I’ve said and I hope you agree!!! Today we shared a book called The Big Bad Wolf. People around the world think the Big Bad Wolf is bad. Personally I disagree, I think he didn't do anything wrong and this is my side of the story...

To start off with, he only wanted some sugar for his granny’s birthday cake because he ran out of it.

Secondly, he ate the 2 little pigs because they were dead. Therefore, he didn’t want to let them rot of course he’s going to eat them.

In addition, it was an accident that he knocked the houses down because he had a cold.

In conclusion, he only wanted 1 cup of sugar. The pigs were dead. He had a cold, so he kept sneezing. By Emily Anger, Frustration, Annoyed was what The Big Bad Wolf felt when he saw the newspaper. All across the world people believe from their childhood time that the story of the 3 little pig’s story is true. That is what I believed until I heard the true story the wolf’s side. And these are the reasons why.

Firstly, the pigs were really rude. They didn’t even open the door when he asked nicely. Thus, the third pig said to the wolf that his Grandma should sit on a pin. All that he wanted was some sugar to make a birthday cake for his Grandma.

Furthermore, He only ate the 1st and 2nd pig because they were already dead. Therefore, it should not matter because nobody likes to waste food and that’s all he was doing.

Finally, the newspaper framed him because they started the whole Big Bad Wolf thing. Hence, the police were pigs so guess whose side they were on, that’s right the pigs side.

In conclusion, I believe that the Big Bad Wolf should be called the Big Good Wolf or something like that. These are the reasons why the newspaper framed him, the police were pigs, he didn’t want to waste food and the pigs were really rude. That’s why I believe that the wolf is good and so should you. Today we shared a book called The Big Bad Wolf. But I think he is not a big bad wolf. These are the things I think he did is an accident.

So far I think he did this by accident. Because he did not mean to have a cold and that he did not mean to blow the house down.

Next, it did not matter if he ate the pigs because they were dead because he blew the house down and it was an accident.

Lastly, the pigs were rude because they said go away and they did not let him have some sugar.

In conclusion, I strongly believe that you should AGREE with me. Because he did not mean it, he was only trying to be nice to is grandma. By Paige

FROM ROOM 6

I have a hermit crab. Her name is Charley. Her glass cage has a log and a hat. It also has a bath, a water bowl and some shells with food in it. Charley has a black shell and we only get them out once a day. By Macey
